(4) The credit shall be allowed in an amount equal to the lesser of:
   (a) Fifty percent of the eligible costs incurred by the taxpayer with respect to the eligible residential property; and
   (b) The tax liability of the taxpayer for the tax year in which the credit is allowed.

(5) Any tax credit otherwise allowable under this section that is not used by the taxpayer in the tax year described in subsection (3) of this section may be carried forward and offset against the taxpayer’s tax liability for the next succeeding tax year. (9) The total credits allowed to all taxpayers in any tax year under this section may not exceed $10 million. A partial credit may be certified under section 2 of this 2019 Act in order to bring the total of all credits allowed to not more than $10 million.

(10)(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection, a tax credit allowed under this section may not be sold or transferred.

   (b) Tax credits allowed under this section that a partnership, limited liability company, S corporation or other pass-through entity is entitled to claim may be allocated to the partners, members or shareholders of the entity for their direct use in accordance with the provisions of any agreement among the partners, members or shareholders.

of Revenue. The notice must be given on a form prescribed by the department that contains all of the following:

(D) The department shall adopt rules establishing procedures for the transfer of tax

a credit is claimed.
  (2) The claim must contain:
    (a) Evidence showing:
      (A) That the property is eligible residential property;

    (b) Any other information the department may require.
  (3)(a) If the department determines that the eligible residential property does not meet all the requirements under this section and section 1 of this 2019 Act, the department shall deny the claim.
  (b) If the department determines that the eligible residential property meets all the requirements under this section and section 1 of this 2019 Act, the department shall issue to the taxpayer a certificate of eligibility for the tax credit allowable under section 1 of this 2019
Act. The certificate shall state the approved amount of eligible costs for the eligible resi-

  (4) At the conclusion of each calendar year, the Housing and Community Services Department shall send to the Department of Revenue a list of the names, addresses and taxpayer identification numbers of taxpayers to whom a certificate of eligibility has been issued under this section during the calendar year, along with approved amounts of eligible costs for each eligible residential property.
  (5) Notwithstanding that a certificate of eligibility has been issued to a taxpayer under this section, the Department of Revenue may disallow, in whole or in part, a claim for credit under section 1 of this 2019 Act upon the department’s determination that, under the provisions of section 1 of this 2019 Act, the taxpayer is not entitled to the credit or is entitled to only a portion of the amount claimed.

SECTION 3. (1) A qualified reseller may resell an eligible residential property only to a qualified purchaser.

(3)(a) Notwithstanding ORS 205.130, a county clerk may not record or cause to be recorded an instrument conveying or contracting to convey fee title to eligible residential property unless the instrument is accompanied by documentary evidence showing that the consideration for the transfer was not greater than the amount determined under subsection (2) of this section.

(b) Upon recording the instrument, the county clerk shall make a notation as a public record that the eligible residential property is subject to the provisions of this section.

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) of this section apply to an eligible residential property only for the period of 11 years beginning on the date on which the contract of sale with the first qualified purchaser to own the property closes.

(5) A qualified purchaser who purchases eligible residential property from a qualified reseller for a purchase price in excess of the amount determined under subsection (2) of this section may bring suit in the circuit court of the county in which the eligible residential property is located to recover the amount of the excess.
