A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to bump-fire stocks; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) A person commits the offense of unlawful use of a bump-fire stock if the person knowingly:
   (a) Attaches a bump-fire stock to a firearm; or
   (b) Possesses a bump-fire stock that is attached to a firearm.
(2) Unlawful use of a bump-fire stock is a Class A violation.
(3) As used in this section and section 2 of this 2019 Act:
   (a) “Bump-fire stock” means a buttstock designed to be attached to a semiautomatic firearm with the effect of increasing the rate of fire achievable by the semiautomatic firearm to that of a fully automatic firearm by using the energy from the recoil of the firearm to generate reciprocating action that facilitates repeated activation of the trigger.
   (b) “Firearm” has the meaning given that term in ORS 166.210.

SECTION 2. (1) A person commits the offense of unlawful transfer of a bump-fire stock if the person knowingly transfers a bump-fire stock to another person.
(2) Unlawful transfer of a bump-fire stock is a Class A violation.

SECTION 3. This 2019 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the date on which the 2019 regular session of the Eightieth Legislative Assembly adjourns sine die.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
