23 SECTION 2. ORS 113.105 is amended to read:

24 113.105. (1)(a) Except as provided in subsections (2) to [(4)] (5) of this section, the personal rep-25 resentative may not act, and letters may not be issued to the personal representative, until the 26 personal representative provides a bond to the clerk of the court in an amount set by the court.
27 The bond must be for the security and benefit of all interested persons and must be conditioned upon 28 the personal representative faithfully performing the duties of the position. The bond must be exe-
29 cuted by a surety qualified under ORCP 82 D to G.

30 (b) The amount of the bond set by the court under this subsection must be adequate to protect 31 interested persons. In setting the amount of the bond, the court shall consider:

32 (A) The nature, liquidity and apparent value of the assets of the estate.

33 (B) The anticipated income during administration.

34 (C) The probable indebtedness and taxes.

35 (2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply if:

36 (a) The will provides that no bond is required, but the court may, for good cause, require a bond
37 notwithstanding any provision in a will that no bond is required;

38 (b) The personal representative is the sole heir or devisee, but the court may, for good cause,
39 require a bond notwithstanding the fact that the personal representative is the sole heir or devisee; 40 [or]

41 (c) The personal representative is the Department of State Lands, the Department of Veterans'
42 Affairs, the Director of Human Services, the Director of the Oregon Health Authority or an attorney 43 approved under ORS 113.086[.]; or

44 (d) The petition for appointment of the personal representative states that no assets of 45 the estate are known to the petitioner.

1 (3) If no bond was required under subsection (2)(d) of this section and assets of the estate
2 later come into the possession or knowledge of the personal representative, the personal
3 representative shall, within 30 days after filing the inventory or supplemental inventory first
4 showing assets of the estate, file a motion to set or waive the bond as provided in this sec-
5 tion.

6 [(3)] (4) Upon a request by the personal representative, the court may waive the requirement 7 of a bond if:

- 8 (a) The request states the reasons why the waiver is requested; and
- 9 (b) The request describes the known creditors of the estate.

10 [(4)] (5) The court may waive or reduce the requirement of a bond to the extent that:

11 (a) The personal representative provides written confirmation from a financial institution that 12 property of the estate is held by the financial institution subject to withdrawal only on order of the 13 court; or

14 (b) The court restricts the sale, encumbrance or other disposition of property of the estate 15 without prior court approval.

16 [(5)] (6) Nothing in this section affects the provisions of ORS 709.240, relating to a trust com-
17 pany acting as personal representative.

18 SECTION 3. ORS 113.155 is amended to read:

19 113.155. (1) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, upon appointment a personal 20 representative shall cause a notice to interested persons to be published once in each of three con-

22 (a) A newspaper published in the county in which the estate proceeding is pending; or

23 (b) If no newspaper is published in the county in which the estate proceeding is pending, a 24 newspaper designated by the court.

25 (2) The notice shall include:

26 (a) The title of the court in which the estate proceeding is pending;

27 (b) The name of the decedent;

28 (c) The name of the personal representative and the address at which claims are to be presented;

29 (d) A statement requiring all persons having claims against the estate to present them, within 30 four months after the date of the first publication of the notice to the personal representative at the 31 address designated in the notice for the presentation of claims or they may be barred;

32 (e) The date of the first publication of the notice; and

33 (f) A statement advising all persons whose rights may be affected by the proceeding that addi-34 tional information may be obtained from the records of the court, the personal representative or the 35 attorney for the personal representative.

36 (3) The failure of the personal representative to cause a notice to be published under this sec-
37 tion is a breach of duty to the persons concerned, but does not affect the validity of appointment, 38 duties or powers or the exercise of duties or powers.

39 (4) A personal representative shall file in the estate proceeding proof of the publication of notice
40 required by this section. The proof shall include a copy of the published notice.

41 (5)(a) This section does not apply if the petition for appointment of the personal repre-
42 sentative states that no assets of the estate are known to the petitioner and no assets of the 43 estate have come into the possession or knowledge of the personal representative.

44 (b) If the petition for appointment of the personal representative states that no assets
45 of the estate are known to the petitioner and assets of the estate later come into the pos-

1 session or knowledge of the personal representative, the personal representative shall, within 2 30 days after the filing of the inventory or supplemental inventory first showing assets of the 3 estate, commence publication of notice to interested persons as provided in this section.

4 SECTION 4. ORS 113.165 is amended to read:

5 113.165. Within 90 days after the date of appointment, unless a longer time is granted by the 6 court, a personal representative shall file in the estate proceeding an inventory of all property of 7 the estate that has come into the possession or knowledge of the personal representative. The in-
8 ventory shall show the estimates by the personal representative of the respective fair market values
9 as of the date of the death of the decedent of the properties described in the inventory. If no
10 property of the estate has come into the possession or knowledge of the personal represen- 11 tative, the personal representative shall file an inventory stating that no property of the 12 estate has come into the possession or knowledge of the personal representative.

13 SECTION 5. ORS 113.175 is amended to read:

14 113.175. (1) Whenever any property of the estate not included in the inventory comes into the 15 possession or knowledge of the personal representative, the personal representative shall either file
16 in the estate proceeding a supplemental inventory within 30 days after the date of receiving pos-
17 session or knowledge, or include the property in the next accounting.

18 (2) If the inventory states that no assets of the estate are known to the petitioner and 19 assets of the estate later come into the possession or knowledge of the personal represen-
20 tative, the personal representative shall file in the estate proceeding a supplemental inven-
21 tory within 30 days after receiving possession or knowledge of the assets.

22 SECTION 6. ORS 115.003 is amended to read:

23 115.003. (1) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, during the three months
24 following appointment, unless a longer time is allowed by the court, the personal representative 25 shall make reasonably diligent efforts to investigate the financial records and affairs of the decedent 26 and shall take such further actions as may be reasonably necessary to ascertain the identity and 27 address of each person who has or asserts a claim against the estate. The personal representative 28 shall request and the court shall allow a longer time for ascertaining claims if the personal repre-
29 sentative cannot complete reasonably diligent efforts to identify persons with claims during the time
30 required by this section or by a previous order of the court.

31 (2) Not later than 30 days after expiration of the period, including any extensions, described in 32 subsection (1) or (6) of this section, the personal representative shall cause to be delivered or mailed
33 to each person known by the personal representative during such period to have or assert a claim
34 against the estate a notice containing the information required in subsection (3) of this section[,
35 except that it shall not be necessary to]. The personal representative is not required to give notice
36 on account of a claim that has already been presented, accepted or paid in full or on account of a 37 claim that is merely conjectural. The personal representative may also cause such a notice to be 38 delivered or mailed to any person discovered by the personal representative after expiration of the 39 period described in subsection (1) or (6) of this section to have or assert a claim against the estate.

40 (3) The notice shall include:

41 (a) The title of the court in which the estate proceeding is pending;

42 (b) The name of the decedent;

43 (c) The name of the personal representative and the address at which claims are to be presented;

44 (d) A statement that claims against the estate not presented to the personal representative 45 within 45 days of the date of the notice may be barred; and

1 (e) The date of the notice, which shall be the date on which it is delivered or mailed.

2 (4) Not later than 60 days after expiration of the period, including any extensions, described in
3 subsection (1) or (6) of this section, the personal representative shall cause to be filed in the estate
4 proceeding proof of compliance with subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The proof shall include
5 a copy of the form of any notice delivered or mailed, the date on which each notice was delivered
6 or mailed and the name and address of the person to whom each notice was delivered or mailed.

7 (5) The failure of the personal representative to make reasonably diligent efforts to ascertain
8 claims as required by subsection (1) of this section or to cause a notice to be delivered or mailed 9 as required by subsection (2) of this section is a breach of duty to the persons concerned, but does 10 not affect the validity of appointment, duties or powers or the exercise of duties or powers.

11 (6)(a) This section does not apply if the petition for appointment of the personal repre-
12 sentative states that no assets of the estate are known to the petitioner and no assets of the 13 estate have come into the possession or knowledge of the personal representative.

14 (b) If the petition for appointment of the personal representative states that no assets
15 of the estate are known to the petitioner and assets of the estate later come into the pos-
16 session or knowledge of the personal representative, the personal representative shall comply
17 with this section. The three-month period for compliance with subsection (1) of this section 18 begins on the date of filing of the inventory or supplemental inventory first showing assets
19 of the estate.

20 SECTION 7. ORS 115.135 is amended to read:

21 115.135. (1) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a claim presented to the 22 personal representative shall be considered allowed as presented unless within 60 days after the 23 date of presentation of the claim as provided in ORS 115.005 the personal representative mails or 24 delivers a notice of disallowance of the claim in whole or in part to the claimant and, if any, the 25 attorney of the claimant. The personal representative shall file in the estate proceeding the claim 26 as presented and a copy of the notice of disallowance.

27 (2) A notice of disallowance of a claim shall state the reason for the disallowance and inform 28 the claimant that the claim has been disallowed in whole or in part and, to the extent disallowed, 29 will be barred unless the claimant proceeds as provided in ORS 115.145. Statement of a reason for 30 disallowance under this subsection is not an admission by the personal representative and does not 31 preclude the assertion of other defenses to the claim.

32 (3) The personal representative may rescind the previous allowance of an unpaid claim, if the 33 claim was allowed because of error, misinformation or excusable neglect. Not less than 30 days be-34 fore the date of the filing of the final account the personal representative shall give notice of 35 rescission of previous allowance of a claim to the claimant and, if any, the attorney of the claimant 36 in the same manner and containing the same information as a notice of disallowance.

37 (4) If allowed, the claim shall be paid only to the extent of the assets of the estate available for 38 the payment of the claim pursuant to the priorities established in ORS 115.115 and 115.125.

39 (5)(a) If the petition for appointment of the personal representative states that no assets 40 of the estate are known to the petitioner and no assets of the estate have come into the 41 possession or knowledge of the personal representative, the personal representative has no
42 duty to allow or disallow claims presented to the personal representative.

43 (b) If the petition for appointment of the personal representative states that no assets
44 or property of the estate are known to the petitioner and assets of the estate later come into 45 the possession or knowledge of the personal representative, a claim presented to the personal

1 representative before the filing of the inventory or supplemental inventory first showing as-
2 sets of the estate shall be considered allowed as presented unless within 60 days after the 3 date of filing of the inventory or supplemental inventory the personal representative mails
4 or delivers a notice of disallowance of the claim in whole or in part to the claimant and, if 5 any, the attorney of the claimant. The personal representative shall file in the estate pro-
6 ceeding the claim as presented and a copy of the notice of disallowance.

7 SECTION 8. Section 9 of this 2019 Act is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 116.

8 SECTION 9. (1) If the petition for appointment of the personal representative states that 9 no assets of the estate are known to the petitioner and no assets of the estate have come
10 into the possession or knowledge of the personal representative, the personal representative 11 may move to close the estate no earlier than four months after the latest date of delivery
12 or mailing of the information described in ORS 113.145.

13 (2) The motion must state that no assets of the estate have come into the possession or 14 knowledge of the personal representative and that the purpose for filing the petition under 15 ORS 113.035 has been accomplished.

16 (3) The personal representative shall set a time for filing objections to the motion to 17 close the estate. Not less than 20 days before the time set, the personal representative shall 18 mail a copy of the motion to close the estate to the persons who would be entitled to receive 19 a copy of the final account under ORS 116.093.

20 (4) If the court grants the motion, the court shall enter a general judgment closing the 21 estate and discharging the personal representative. The discharge so entered operates as a 22 release of the personal representative from further duties and as a bar to any action against 23 the personal representative. The court may, in its discretion and upon such terms as may 24 be just, within one year after entry of the judgment of discharge, permit an action to be 25 brought against the personal representative if the judgment of discharge was taken through 26 fraud or misrepresentation of the personal representative or through the mistake, 27 inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect of the claimant.

28 SECTION 10. ORS 116.083 is amended to read:

29 116.083. (1) A personal representative shall make and file in the estate proceeding an account
30 of the personal representative's administration:

31 (a) Unless the court orders otherwise, annually within 60 days after the anniversary date of the 32 personal representative's appointment.

33 (b) Within 30 days after the date of the personal representative's resignation.

34 [(b)] (c) Within 30 days after the date of the personal representative's removal [or resignation]
35 or the revocation of the personal representative's letters.

36 [(c)] (d) When the estate is ready for final settlement and distribution.

41 cording to the inventory, or, if there was a prior account, the amount of the balance of the prior 42 account.

43 (c) All money and property received during the period covered by the account.

44 (d) All disbursements made during the period covered by the account. Evidence of disbursements 45 must accompany the account, unless otherwise provided by order or rule of the court, or unless the

1 personal representative is a trust company that has complied with ORS 709.030, but that personal 2 representative shall:

3 (A) Maintain the evidence of disbursement for a period of not less than one year following the 4 date on which the order approving the final account is entered;

5 (B) Permit interested persons to inspect the evidence of disbursement and receive copies of the 6 evidence at their own expense at the place of business of the personal representative during the 7 personal representative's normal business hours at any time prior to the end of the one-year period 8 following the date on which the order approving the final account is entered; and

9 (C) Include in each annual account and in the final account a statement that the evidence of 10 disbursement is not filed with the account but is maintained by the personal representative and may 11 be inspected and copied as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

12 (e) The money and property of the estate on hand.

13 (f) Any other information that the personal representative considers necessary to show the 14 condition of the affairs of the estate or as the court may require.

15 (g) A declaration under penalty of perjury in the form required by ORCP 1 E, or an unsworn
16 declaration under ORS 194.800 to 194.835, if the declarant is physically outside the boundaries of the 17 United States.

18 (3)(a) Unless otherwise provided by order of the court, the personal representative may 19 file a statement under this subsection in lieu of the account required under subsection (1)(a) 20 or (b) of this section if the distributees consent in writing.

21 (b) A statement under this subsection must include:

22 (A) The period of time covered by the statement;

23 (B) A description and statement of the value of the money and property on hand at the 24 beginning and ending of the period of time covered by the statement;

25 (C) A copy of the most recent statement received before the accounting for each financial 26 account owned by the estate;

27 (D) A list of the unpaid claims that are allowed or disputed, including the name of the 28 creditor, a description of the claim, the amount of the claim, the priority of the claim under 29 ORS 115.125 and the reason the claim has not been paid;

30 (E) A statement describing why the estate is not ready for final settlement and distrib- 31 ution; and

32 (F) A declaration under penalty of perjury in the form required by ORCP 1 E, or an un-

35 (c) Upon filing a statement under this subsection, the personal representative shall mail

39 personal representative, require the personal representative to make and file an account of 40 the personal representative's administration under subsection (1) of this section within 30
41 days of the date of the creditor's notice.

42 [(3)] (4) When the estate is ready for final settlement and distribution, the account must also 43 include:

44 (a) A statement that any required estate tax return has been filed.

45 (b) A statement that all Oregon income taxes, estate taxes and personal property taxes that are

1 due, if any, have been paid, or if not paid, that payment of those taxes has been secured by bond,

8 the persons and in the portions specified in the judgment.

9 [(4)(a)] (5)(a) The personal representative may file a statement under this subsection in lieu of 13 (B) All creditors of the estate, other than creditors owed administrative expenses that require
