Permits employee to revoke authorization for public employer to make deductions for payment of dues to labor organization.

A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to deductions made by public employers; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 292.055.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2019 Act is added to and made a part of ORS 243.650 to 243.782.

SECTION 2. The terms and conditions of a collective bargaining agreement may not include a provision that has the purpose or effect of requiring a public employee who has withdrawn membership from a labor organization to continue to:

(1) Pay member dues, fees or other assessments to the labor organization; or

(2) Authorize a public employer to make deductions from the salary or wages of the employee to pay member dues, fees or assessments to the labor organization.

SECTION 3. ORS 292.055 is amended to read:

292.055. (1) Upon receipt of the request in writing of a state officer or employee so to do, the state official authorized to disburse funds in payment of the salary or wages of such state officer or employee each month shall deduct from the salary or wages of such officer or employee the amount of money indicated in such request, for payment thereof to a labor organization as the same is defined in ORS 243.650.

(2) Such state official each month shall pay such amount so deducted to any such labor organization so designated to receive it.

(3) Unless there is a contract to the contrary, Upon receipt of the request in writing of such officer or employee so to do, such state official shall cease making such deductions and payments.

(a) A public employee who has withdrawn membership from a labor organization may revoke authorization for the deductions described in subsection (1) of this section by submitting a signed, written statement of revocation to the state official. Upon receipt of the revocation, the state official shall cease making the deductions.

(b) A state official’s compliance with this subsection is not an unfair labor practice under ORS 243.672.

(4) In addition to making such deductions and payments to any labor organization certified under the rules of the Employment Relations Board as representatives of employees in a bargaining
