House Bill 3343

Sponsored by Representatives SOLLMAN, NOSSE; Representatives NOBLE, STARK (at the request of Oregon Council for Behavioral Health)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Requires person that provides mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse to make certain disclosures in any advertisement for or following any communication regarding person's services or facilities. Prohibits person from paying or accepting compensation for referring or referral of resident of this state for mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse. Provides that failure to comply with or violation of Act is unlawful practice under Unlawful Trade Practices Act.

Takes effect on 91st day following adjournment sine die.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to communications by persons that provide certain treatments to residents of this state; creating new provisions; amending ORS 646.608; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section:

(a) “Advertisement” means a public notice, announcement or communication in any form or by means of any media that describes a mental health or substance abuse treatment service or facility for the purpose of promoting, soliciting the purchase of or selling mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse that a person provides to residents of this state.

(b) “Clear and conspicuous” means:

(A) In larger type than surrounding text, in contrasting type, font or color to surrounding text of the same size or set off from surrounding text of the same size by symbols or other marks in a manner that clearly calls attention to the language; or

(B) In a volume and cadence that is readily audible and understandable.

(c) “Mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse” means performing any of the following functions:

(A) Providing a safe, clean and supervised environment for individuals who are suffering from a mental illness or who are acutely intoxicated in which the individuals can receive attention for the mental illness or recover from the intoxication.

(B) Providing treatment, counseling, training, advice or consultation for a mental illness or addiction.

(C) Serving as an inpatient or outpatient facility for medical care, detoxification, rehabilitation or other social services for individuals who suffer from a mental illness or who are alcohol dependent or drug dependent.

(d) “Person” means a natural person, a partnership, a limited partnership, a limited liability partnership, a corporation, a professional corporation, a nonprofit corporation, a limited liability company, a business trust or another business entity.

(B) “Person” does not include a public body, as defined in ORS 174.109, or the Oregon Health and Science University.

(2)(a) A person that provides mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse shall display or announce, in a clear and conspicuous manner in any advertisement for the person's services or in any initial communication the person has with an individual who is seeking services in a facility at which the person provides mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse:

(A) The full street address, city, state and zip code at which the person provides mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse;

(B) Contact information for the Oregon Health Authority in a form and with the contents that the authority specifies by rule;

(C) In accordance with requirements the authority specifies by rule, that mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse may be available for residents of this state from state administered mental health or substance abuse treatment facilities at no charge or at a cost lower than the cost associated with the person's mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse;

(D) Whether the person's services or facilities are registered or licensed by, and provided or located in, this state; and

(E) Which health insurance policies the person accepts and whether the person is within or outside the insurer's provider network, if the advertisement appears or the person communicates the advertisement in print or on the Internet.

(b) If the person communicates with an individual who is seeking mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse at the person's facility, the person shall provide the disclosure described in paragraph (a) of this subsection in a communication that is separate and distinct from all other communications the person has with the individual.

(c) If an advertisement is in the form of an audio or video broadcast, a telephone call or an oral presentation, the person must make the disclosure described in paragraph (a) of this subsection in writing on a website, in a separate electronic communication or in print, as appropriate, and the advertisement must, in a clear and conspicuous manner, identify the website, an electronic mail address or other means by which a recipient of the advertisement can obtain the complete disclosure. The Oregon Health Authority by rule shall prescribe the form and contents of, and the time within which a person must make, the identifications required under this paragraph.

(3) A person that provides mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse may not:

(a) Accept or pay a fee, commission, bonus, rebate or other compensation to another person to refer, or for a referral of, a resident of this state for mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse.

(b) Issue, engage, pay for, disseminate or otherwise make available an advertisement that falsely states or misrepresents the need for a resident of this state to obtain mental health care or services to prevent substance abuse outside this state or at a facility that is located outside this state.

(4) A person that fails to comply with or violates a prohibition set forth in this section engages in an unlawful practice under ORS 646.608 that is enforceable under ORS 646.632 and is subject to an action under ORS 646.638.

SECTION 2. ORS 646.608 is amended to read:

646.608. (1) A person engages in an unlawful practice if in the course of the person's business, vocation or occupation the person does any of the following:

(a) Passes off real estate, goods or services as the real estate, goods or services of another.
(b) Causes likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding as to the source, sponsorship, approval, or certification of real estate, goods or services.
(c) Causes likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding as to affiliation, connection, or association with, or certification by, another.
(d) Uses deceptive representations or designations of geographic origin in connection with real estate, goods or services.
(e) Represents that real estate, goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, quantities or qualities that the real estate, goods or services do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, qualification, affiliation, or connection that the person does not have.
(f) Represents that real estate or goods are original or new if the real estate or goods are deteriorated, altered, reconditioned, reclaimed, used or secondhand.
(g) Represents that real estate, goods or services are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, or that real estate or goods are of a particular style or model, if the real estate, goods or services are of another.
(h) Disparages the real estate, goods, services, property or business of a customer or another by false or misleading representations of fact.
(i) Advertises real estate, goods or services with intent not to provide the real estate, goods or services as advertised, or with intent not to supply reasonably expectable public demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.
(j) Makes false or misleading representations of fact concerning the reasons for, existence of, or amounts of price reductions.
(k) Makes false or misleading representations concerning credit availability or the nature of the transaction or obligation incurred.
(L) Makes false or misleading representations relating to commissions or other compensation to be paid in exchange for permitting real estate, goods or services to be used for model or demonstration purposes or in exchange for submitting names of potential customers.
