A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to civil actions against law enforcement agencies; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 181A.820.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 181A.820 is amended to read:

181A.820. (1) No law enforcement agency of the State of Oregon or of any political subdivision of the state shall use agency moneys, equipment or personnel for the purpose of detecting or apprehending persons whose only violation of law is that they are persons of foreign citizenship present in the United States in violation of federal immigration laws.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a law enforcement agency may exchange information with the United States Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the United States Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services and the United States Bureau of Customs and Border Protection in order to:

(a) Verify the immigration status of a person if the person is arrested for any criminal offense; or

(b) Request criminal investigation information with reference to persons named in records of the United States Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the United States Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services or the United States Bureau of Customs and Border Protection.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a law enforcement agency may arrest any person who:

(a) Is charged by the United States with a criminal violation of federal immigration laws under Title II of the Immigration and Nationality Act or 18 U.S.C. 1015, 1422 to 1429 or 1505; and

(b) Is subject to arrest for the crime pursuant to a warrant of arrest issued by a federal magistrate.

(4) Any person may bring a civil action against a law enforcement agency that violates this section to enjoin the violation. A person injured by a violation of this section may also bring a civil action against the law enforcement agency to recover damages. If an injunction is granted or damages are awarded in an action under this subsection, the court shall award the plaintiff reasonable attorney fees and costs, at trial and on appeal.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
a law enforcement agency.

[(5)] (6) As used in this section, “warrant of arrest” has the meaning given that term in ORS 131.005.

SECTION 2. The amendments to ORS 181A.820 by section 1 of this 2019 Act apply to causes of action arising on or after the effective date of this 2019 Act.
