House Concurrent Resolution 5

Sponsored by Representative CLEM (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Designates May 22, 2019, as Oregon Kind Is Better Day.

2	Whereas mental health issues may contribute to homelessness, bullying, abuse, low school at
3	tendance levels and low high school graduation rates; and
4	Whereas it is in every Oregonian's interest to address the core needs of children's mental
5	emotional and physical health; and
6	Whereas overarching issues our state faces that impact Oregonians' well-being and our economy
7	are often grounded in childhood mental health challenges; and
8	Whereas kindness is a major contributor to the mental, emotional and physical health of youth
9	and adults; and
10	Whereas acts of kindness may have the physiological benefit of developing neural pathways that
11	enhance feelings of well-being and elevate mood; and
12	Whereas people who practice kindness may live longer; and
13	Whereas kindness includes suspending judgment of others, engaging in compassionate conver-
14	sations and practicing mindfulness; and
15	Whereas kindness is a choice and a skill that grows with practice; and
16	Whereas people who witness kindness also tend to act kindly, thereby perpetuating kindness
17	now, therefore,
18	Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:
19	That we, the members of the Eightieth Legislative Assembly, declare that "kind is better"; and
20	be it further
21	Resolved, That in Oregon, where you can be anything, we resolve to be kind; and be it further
22	Resolved, That it is the policy of the State of Oregon to commit ourselves to acts of kindness
23	that create a kinder, more welcoming society; and be it further
24	Resolved, That May 22, 2019, is designated as Oregon Kind Is Better Day.
