A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to evaluation of economic development programs in Oregon; and declaring an emergency.
Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1)(a) As used in this section, “economic development program” means a publicly or privately administered program or activity that:

(A) Has the primary purpose of encouraging the establishment and growth of businesses, including creating and retaining jobs;

(B) Receives state funding or federal funding allocated through state appropriations; and

(C) Provides financial assistance, tax credits or direct services to specific industries, businesses, local governments or organizations.

(b) “Economic development program” does not include academic and research programs at educational institutions unless the programs involve job training or apprenticeships.

(2) The Joint Interim Legislative Committee to Review Economic Development Programs in Oregon is established, consisting of six members appointed as follows:

(a) The President of the Senate shall appoint three members from among members of the Senate.

(b) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three members from among members of the House of Representatives.

(3) The committee shall:

(a) Research, study, compile and summarize data about economic development programs in Oregon, including but not limited to:

(A) The state or local agencies or entities responsible for administering the programs.

(B) The purposes of, and physical locations targeted by, the programs, such as providing assistance to small businesses, early stage businesses, entrepreneurs, technology-based businesses, minority-owned businesses, traded and industrial sector businesses, economically distressed areas, rural areas and brownfields.

(C) The sources and amounts of public and private moneys used in the operation of the programs and how moneys are distributed or disbursed.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

LC 1714
(D) The types of financial and nonfinancial assistance provided by the programs, including but not limited to grants, loans, loan guarantees, tax credits, tax incentives, technological assistance and assistance acquiring capital, equipment or real property.

(E) Pursuant to rules established by the committee, any other data the committee decides to research, study, compile and summarize.

(b) Determine the effectiveness of the economic development programs researched and studied under paragraph (a) of this subsection, using existing analyses of outcomes, performance measures and benchmarks, if any, and making recommendations to create or improve evaluation methods, processes and techniques to measure the effectiveness of economic development programs in the future.

(c) Develop recommendations for a consistent, statewide evaluation process for economic development programs that incorporates specific criteria including, but not limited to, the number and type of jobs created and retained, the number and type of businesses established and maintained and successful efforts to streamline the administration and operation of economic development programs in the future.

(4) The committee may hold hearings and take testimony as necessary and appropriate for the performance of the committee's duties, functions and powers under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The committee may not transact business unless a majority of committee members from the House of Representatives and a majority of committee members from the Senate are present.

(6) Action by the committee requires the affirmative vote of a majority of committee members from the House of Representatives and a majority of committee members from the Senate.

(7) The committee shall elect one of its members to serve as chairperson.

(8) If there is a vacancy for any cause, the appointing authority shall make an appointment to become immediately effective.

(9) The committee shall meet at times and places specified by the call of the chairperson or of a majority of the members of the committee.

(10) Members of the committee shall receive an amount equal to that authorized under ORS 171.072 from funds appropriated to the Legislative Assembly for each day on which the members engage in the performance of their duties as members of the committee.

(11) The committee may adopt rules necessary for the operation of the committee.

(12) The committee shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and may include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to business and economic development no later than September 15, 2020.

(13) The Legislative Policy and Research Director shall provide staff support to the committee.

(14) All agencies of state government, as defined in ORS 174.111, are directed to assist the committee in the performance of its duties and, to the extent permitted by laws relating to confidentiality, to furnish information and advice the members of the committee consider necessary to perform their duties.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2019 Act is repealed on December 31, 2020.

SECTION 3. This 2019 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2019 Act takes effect on its passage.
