- "SECTION 2. (1) As used in this section, 'American viticultural area' means a delimited grape growing region approved under 27 C.F.R. part 9.
- "(2) If the appellation of origin on a wine label is an American viticultural area that is wholly or partially within the boundaries of a larger American viticultural area, the Oregon Liquor Control Commission may require that the wine label also identify the larger American viticultural area. If the commission requires that the wine label identify the larger American viticultural area, the area must be identified in letters:
- "(a) At least two millimeters high if the wine container is more than 187 milliliters in volume; or
 - "(b) At least one millimeter high if the wine container is 187 milliliters or less in volume.
- "(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not require that the name of the larger American viticultural area:
 - "(a) Be included in or near the appellation of origin; or
 - "(b) Be in the same size or font as the appellation of origin.
- "(4) The commission shall adopt rules specifying any American viticultural areas for which the wine labeling requirement in subsection (2) of this section is applicable. The commission shall, at a minimum, adopt rules to require American viticultural areas that are wholly or partially within the boundaries of the Willamette Valley viticultural area to identify the Willamette Valley viticultural area on the label. For all other areas, the commission shall solicit and consider recommendations by Oregon winemaking industry associations that are associated with an American viticultural area before determining whether the area should be included for purposes of the wine labeling requirement in subsection (2) of this section.
- "(5) Except as provided in this subsection, an American viticultural area may not appear on a wine label in a manner that resembles all or part of a brand name or appear in lettering that is larger or more prominent than the brand name. This subsection does not apply if the brand name stating or implying an American viticultural area has been in continuous use as a brand name since December 31, 2017, and prior to December 31, 2017, was:
