A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to a pilot program for community agency tax credits; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. As used in sections 1 to 5 of this 2019 Act:

(1) “Community agency” means a nonprofit agency that is located in a region, identified under section 3 of this 2019 Act, in which it provides services related to children and families, services related to community development or similar services.

(2) “Qualified contribution” means a contribution made by a taxpayer to a selected community agency for the purpose of receiving a tax credit under section 7 of this 2019 Act.

(3) “Selected community agency” means a community agency that is:

(a) Selected by the Department of Human Services under section 3 of this 2019 Act to perform the duties described in section 5 of this 2019 Act in a particular region; and

(b) Eligible to receive contributions that qualify as deductions under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SECTION 2. The Department of Human Services, in collaboration with an advisory committee established by the department, shall establish a pilot program in up to three regions of this state to:

(1) Encourage taxpayers to make contributions to selected community agencies by providing a financial return on qualified contributions and by soliciting other contributions.

(2) Achieve specific and measurable goals for targeted communities and populations.

(3) Encourage the development of innovative strategies for strengthening families, building resilient neighborhoods, promoting the positive development of children and reducing child foster care placements.

SECTION 3. (1) For the purpose of implementing the pilot program established under section 2 of this 2019 Act, the Department of Human Services, in collaboration with an advisor committee established by the department, shall:

(a) Identify up to three regions of this state in which to establish the pilot program.

(b) For each region, identify outcome-based goals that are consistent with the purposes provided in section 2 of this 2019 Act. The goals identified under this paragraph must take into account the resources and needs of the region.

(c) Develop by rule the selected community agency application process, and any process for the renewal of such selection.

(d) Select a community agency to be the selected community agency in each region.

(e) Enter into an agreement with each selected community agency to have the selected community agency perform the duties specified in section 5 of this 2019 Act.

(f) Supervise the disbursement of moneys by selected community agencies to community agencies consistent with the duties specified in section 5 of this 2019 Act.

(g) Provide written certification to taxpayers that are eligible to claim the credit under section 7 of this 2019 Act.

(2) The department may establish by rule procedures and criteria for determining the amount of the tax credit to be certified under this section and any other provisions required to implement the pilot program established under section 2 of this 2019 Act.

SECTION 4. (1) In selecting a community agency to be the selected community agency for a region under section 3 of this 2019 Act, the Department of Human Services shall consid-

(a) A prospective agency's financial soundness, net worth, cash flow and accounting capacity to manage the tax credit program;

(b) A prospective agency's demonstrated ability to serve low and moderate income families;

(c) The turnover rate of members of the governing board of the prospective agency and the degree to which the board is representative of the region in which the agency is located, has experience with financial matters and has a demonstrated history of collaboration with other community agencies;

(d) The experience and expertise of the executive or managing officer and staff of the prospective agency; and

(e) The prospective agency's ability to engage and support residents of a region facing adversity, as evidenced by high rates of chronic absenteeism and child maltreatment, to take responsibility for the agency's community and to be a safe healthy and nurturing environment.

(2) The department shall select the community agency that, in the judgment of the department and based on the criteria set forth in subsection (1) of this section, will best serve the interests of the region for which it is selected.

SECTION 5. Each selected community agency shall:

(1) Encourage taxpayers to make contributions that qualify for the tax credit under
section 7 of this 2019 Act;

(2) Provide a means for taxpayers to make qualified contributions to the selected community agency;

(3) Send to the Department of Human Services the information required by the department to certify qualified contributions for the tax credit available under section 7 of this 2019
Act;
(4) Disburse moneys to the community agencies located in the region that the selected community agency represents, pursuant to rules adopted by the Department of Human Services;
(5) Coordinate an application process by which persons may apply to be a participating community agency;
(6) Enter into an agreement with each participating community agency under which the duties and responsibilities of the participating community agency and the selected community agency are stated;
(7) Provide or coordinate required training for participating community agencies;
(8) Monitor participating community agencies through visits to the agencies and otherwise;
(9) By the end of each calendar year, disburse to participating community agencies all moneys that are available to the agency from qualified contributions; and
(10) Base any disbursements under this section on the actual costs of providing services in the region for which the disbursements are being made, including training costs, operating costs and wages.

SECTION 6. Section 7 of this 2019 Act is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 315.

SECTION 7. (1) A credit against the taxes otherwise due under ORS chapter 316 is allowed to a taxpayer for qualified contributions made to a selected community agency under section 5 of this 2019 Act.
(2) The credit allowed under this section may not exceed the lesser of 70 percent of the amount of qualified contributions for the taxpayer for the tax year or the tax liability of the taxpayer for the tax year in which the credit is claimed.
(3) A nonresident shall be allowed the credit under this section. The credit shall be computed in the same manner and be subject to the same limitations as the credit granted to a resident. However, the credit shall be prorated using the proportion provided in ORS 316.117.
(4) If a change in the status of a taxpayer from resident to nonresident or from nonresident to resident occurs, the credit allowed by this section shall be determined in a manner consistent with ORS 316.117.
(5) The Department of Revenue may by rule require that the Department of Human Services provide information about the certification issued under section 3 of this 2019 Act, including the name and taxpayer identification number of the taxpayer or other person receiving certification, the date the certification was issued in its final form, the approved amount of credit and the first tax year for which the credit may be claimed.
(6) The Department of Revenue shall prescribe by rule the manner and the timing of submission of the information described in subsection (5) of this section to the Department of Revenue.
(7) Any tax credit otherwise allowable under this section that is not used by the taxpayer in a particular tax year may be carried forward and offset against the taxpayer's tax liability for the next succeeding tax year. Any credit remaining unused in the next succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the second succeeding tax year, and likewise any credit not used in that second succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the third succeeding tax year but may not be carried forward for any tax year thereafter.
(8) The total credits allowed under this section may not exceed $700,000 for all qualified contributions to a selected community agency in any tax year and may not exceed $2.1 million for all taxpayers in any tax year.

(9) As used in this section, “qualified contribution” and “selected community agency” have the meanings given those terms in section 1 of this 2019 Act.

SECTION 8. Section 7 of this 2019 Act applies to contributions made and tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2020, and before January 1, 2026.

SECTION 9. The Department of Human Services shall report on the progress of the pilot program established under section 2 of this 2019 Act, in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to human services no later than September 15, 2022.

SECTION 10. This 2019 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the date on which the regular session of the Eightieth Legislative Assembly adjourns sine die.
