8 “SECTION 11. ORS 90.396 is amended to read:

9 “90.396. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, after at 10 least 24 hours’ written notice specifying the acts and omissions constituting 11 the cause and specifying the date and time of the termination, the landlord 12 may terminate the rental agreement and take possession as provided in ORS 13 105.105 to 105.168, if:

14 “(a) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet seri-15 ously threatens to inflict substantial personal injury, or inflicts any sub-16 stantial personal injury, upon a person on the premises other than the 17 tenant;

18 “(b) The tenant or someone in the tenant’s control recklessly endangers 19 a person on the premises other than the tenant by creating a serious risk 20 of substantial personal injury;

21 “(c) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet in-22 flicts any substantial personal injury upon a neighbor living in the immedi-23 ate vicinity of the premises;

24 “(d) The tenant or someone in the tenant’s control intentionally inflicts 25 any substantial damage to the premises or the tenant’s pet inflicts substan-26 tial damage to the premises on more than one occasion;

27 “(e)(A) The tenant intentionally provided substantial false information on 28 the application for the tenancy within the past year;

29 “(B) The false information was with regard to a criminal conviction of 30 the tenant that would have been material to the landlord’s acceptance of the 1 application; and

2 “(C) The landlord terminates the rental agreement within 30 days after 3 discovering the falsity of the information; or 4 “(f) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet com-5 mits any act that is outrageous in the extreme, on the premises or in the 6 immediate vicinity of the premises. For purposes of this paragraph, an act 7 is outrageous in the extreme if the act is not described in paragraphs (a) to 8 (e) of this subsection, but is similar in degree and is one that a reasonable 9 person in that community would consider to be so offensive as to warrant 10 termination of the tenancy within 24 hours, considering the seriousness of 11 the act or the risk to others. An act that is outrageous in the extreme is 12 more extreme or serious than an act that warrants a 30-day termination un-13 der ORS 90.392. Acts that are ‘outrageous in the extreme’ include, but are 14 not limited to, the following acts by a person:

15 “(A) Prostitution, commercial sexual solicitation or promoting 16 prostitution, as described in ORS 167.007, 167.008 and 167.012;

17 “(B) Unlawful manufacture, delivery or possession of a controlled sub-18 stance, as defined in ORS 475.005;

19 “(C) Manufacture of a cannabinoid extract, as defined in ORS 475B.015, 20 unless the person manufacturing the cannabinoid extract holds a license is-21 sued under ORS 475B.090 or is registered under ORS 475B.840;

22 “(D) [Intimidation] A bias crime, as described in ORS 166.155 and 166.165; 23 or

24 “(E) Burglary as described in ORS 164.215 and 164.225.

25 “(2) If the cause for a termination notice given pursuant to subsection (1) 26 of this section is based upon the acts of the tenant’s pet, the tenant may cure 27 the cause and avoid termination of the tenancy by removing the pet from the 28 premises prior to the end of the notice period. The notice must describe the 29 right of the tenant to cure the cause. If the tenant returns the pet to the 30 premises at any time after having cured the violation, the landlord, after at 1 least 24 hours' written notice specifying the subsequent presence of the of-2 fending pet, may terminate the rental agreement and take possession as 3 provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168. The tenant does not have a right to cure 4 this subsequent violation.

5 “(3) For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, someone is in the 6 tenant’s control if that person enters or remains on the premises with the 7 tenant’s permission or consent after the tenant reasonably knows or should 8 know of that person’s act or likelihood to commit any act of the type de-9 scribed in subsection (1) of this section.

10 “(4) An act can be proven to be outrageous in the extreme even if the act 11 is one that does not violate a criminal statute. Notwithstanding the refer-12 ences to criminal statutes in subsection (1)(f) of this section, the landlord’s 13 burden of proof in an action for possession under subsection (1) of this sec-14 tion is the civil standard of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

15 “(5) If a good faith effort by a landlord to terminate the tenancy under 16 subsection (1)(f) of this section and to recover possession of the rental unit 17 under ORS 105.105 to 105.168 fails by decision of the court, the landlord may 18 not be found in violation of any state statute or local ordinance requiring 19 the landlord to remove that tenant upon threat of fine, abatement or forfei-20 ture as long as the landlord continues to make a good faith effort to termi-21 nate the tenancy.

22 “SECTION 12. ORS 137.225, as amended by section 12, chapter 120, 23 Oregon Laws 2018, is amended to read:

7 jurisdiction over the crime for which the person was arrested, cited or 8 charged, for entry of an order setting aside the record of the arrest, citation 9 or charge. For the purpose of computing the one-year period, time during 10 which the person has secreted himself or herself within or without this state 11 is not included.

12 “(c) A person whose sentence of probation was revoked may not apply to 13 the court for entry of an order setting aside the conviction for which the 14 person was sentenced to probation for a period of 10 years from the date of 15 revocation.

16 “(2)(a) A copy of the motion and a full set of the defendant’s fingerprints 17 shall be served upon the office of the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted 18 the crime or violation, or who had authority to prosecute the charge if there 19 was no accusatory instrument filed, and opportunity shall be given to contest 20 the motion. The fingerprint card with the notation ‘motion for setting aside 21 conviction,’ or ‘motion for setting aside arrest, citation or charge record’ as 22 the case may be, shall be forwarded to the Department of State Police. In-23 formation resulting from the fingerprint search along with the fingerprint 24 card shall be returned to the prosecuting attorney.

25 “(b) When a prosecuting attorney is served with a copy of a motion to set 26 aside a conviction under this section, the prosecuting attorney shall provide 27 a copy of the motion and notice of the hearing date to the victim, if any, of 28 the crime by mailing a copy of the motion and notice to the victim’s last-29 known address.

30 “(c) When a person makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section,

1 the person must pay a fee of $80 to the Department of State Police. The 2 person shall attach a certified check payable to the Department of State 3 Police in the amount of $80 to the fingerprint card that is served upon the 4 prosecuting attorney. The office of the prosecuting attorney shall forward 5 the check with the fingerprint card to the Department of State Police.

6 “(d) In addition to the fee established under paragraph (c) of this sub-7 section, when a person makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section 8 the person must pay the filing fee established under ORS 21.135.

9 “(e) The prosecuting attorney may not charge the defendant a fee for 10 performing the requirements described in this section.

11 “(3) Upon hearing the motion, the court may require the filing of such 12 affidavits and may require the taking of such proofs as the court deems 13 proper. The court shall allow the victim to make a statement at the hearing.
14 Except as otherwise provided in subsection (12) of this section, if the court 15 determines that the circumstances and behavior of the applicant from the 16 date of conviction, or from the date of arrest, citation or charge as the case 17 may be, to the date of the hearing on the motion warrant setting aside the 18 conviction, or the arrest, citation or charge record as the case may be, the 24 Police number or submitting agency number. Upon the entry of the order, 25 the applicant for purposes of the law shall be deemed not to have been pre-26 viously convicted, or arrested, cited or charged as the case may be, and the 27 court shall issue an order sealing the record of conviction and other official 28 records in the case, including the records of arrest, citation or charge 29 whether or not the arrest, citation or charge resulted in a further criminal 30 proceeding.

1 “(4) The clerk of the court shall forward a certified copy of the order to 2 such agencies as directed by the court. A certified copy must be sent to the 3 Department of Corrections when the person has been in the custody of the 4 Department of Corrections. Upon entry of the order, the conviction, arrest, 5 citation, charge or other proceeding shall be deemed not to have occurred, 6 and the applicant may answer accordingly any questions relating to its oc-7 currence.

8 “(5) The provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section apply to a con-9 viction for:

10 “(a) A Class B felony, except for a violation of ORS 166.429 or any crime 11 classified as a person felony as that term is defined in the rules of the 12 Oregon Criminal Justice Commission, only if:

13 “(A)(i) Twenty years or more have elapsed from the date of the conviction 14 sought to be set aside or of the release of the person from imprisonment for 15 the conviction sought to be set aside, whichever is later; and 16 “(ii) The person has not been convicted of, arrested or criminally cited for 17 or charged with any other offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, after 20 or charge that has been set aside under this section shall be considered for 26 “(c) An offense constituting a violation under state law or local ordi-27 nance.

28 “(d) An offense committed before January 1, 1972, that, if committed after 29 that date, would qualify for an order under this section.

30 “(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, the provisions of sub-

1 section (1)(a) of this section do not apply to a conviction for:

2 “(a) Criminal mistreatment in the second degree under ORS 163.200 if the 3 victim at the time of the crime was 65 years of age or older.

4 “(b) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree under ORS 163.205 if the 5 victim at the time of the crime was 65 years of age or older, or when the 6 offense constitutes child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005.

7 “(c) Endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 (1)(a), when 8 the offense constitutes child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005.

9 “(d) Criminally negligent homicide under ORS 163.145, when that offense 10 was punishable as a Class C felony.

11 “(e) Assault in the third degree under ORS 163.165 (1)(h).

12 “(f) Any sex crime, unless:

13 “(A) The sex crime is listed in ORS 163A.140 (1)(a) and:

14 “(i) The person has been relieved of the obligation to report as a sex 15 offender pursuant to a court order entered under ORS 163A.145 or 163A.150; 16 and

17 “(ii) The person has not been convicted of, found guilty except for insan-18 ity of or found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court based on 19 a crime for which the court is prohibited from setting aside the conviction 20 under this section; or

21 “(B) The sex crime constitutes a Class C felony and:

22 “(i) The person was under 16 years of age at the time of the offense;

23 “(ii) The person is:

24 “(I) Less than two years and 180 days older than the victim; or 25 “(II) At least two years and 180 days older, but less than three years and 26 180 days older, than the victim and the court finds that setting aside the 27 conviction is in the interests of justice and of benefit to the person and the 28 community;

29 “(iii) The victim’s lack of consent was due solely to incapacity to consent 30 by reason of being less than a specified age;

1 “(iv) The victim was at least 12 years of age at the time of the offense;

2 “(v) The person has not been convicted of, found guilty except for insanity 3 of or found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court based on a 4 crime for which the court is prohibited from setting aside the conviction 5 under this section; and 6 “(vi) Each conviction or finding described in this subparagraph involved 7 the same victim.

8 “(7) Notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, the provisions of sub-9 section (1) of this section do not apply to:

10 “(a) A conviction for a state or municipal traffic offense.

11 “(b) A person convicted, within the 10-year period immediately preceding 12 the filing of the motion pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, of any 13 other offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, whether or not the other 14 conviction is for conduct associated with the same criminal episode that 15 caused the arrest, citation, charge or conviction that is sought to be set 16 aside. A single violation, other than a motor vehicle violation, within the 17 last 10 years is not a conviction under this subsection. Notwithstanding 18 subsection (1) of this section, a conviction that has been set aside under this 19 section shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether this par-20 agraph is applicable.

21 “(c) A person who at the time the motion authorized by subsection (1) of 22 this section is pending before the court is under charge of commission of any 23 crime.

24 “(8) The provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section do not apply to:

25 “(a) A person arrested or criminally cited for or charged with an offense 26 within the three-year period immediately preceding the filing of the motion 27 for any offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, and excluding arrests, 28 citations or charges for conduct associated with the same criminal episode 29 that caused the arrest, citation or charge that is sought to be set aside. An 30 arrest, citation or charge that has been set aside under this section may not

1 be considered for the purpose of determining whether this paragraph is ap-2 plicable.

3 “(b) An arrest or citation for driving while under the influence of 4 intoxicants if the charge is dismissed as a result of the person’s successful 5 completion of a diversion agreement described in ORS 813.200.

6 “(9) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section apply to convictions, 7 arrests, citations and charges that occurred before, as well as those that 8 occurred after, September 9, 1971. There is no time limit for making an ap-9 plication.

10 “(10) For purposes of any civil action in which truth is an element of a 11 claim for relief or affirmative defense, the provisions of subsection (3) of this 12 section providing that the conviction, arrest, citation, charge or other pro-13 ceeding be deemed not to have occurred do not apply and a party may apply 14 to the court for an order requiring disclosure of the official records in the 15 case as may be necessary in the interest of justice.

16 “(11) Upon motion of any prosecutor or defendant in a case involving re-17 cords sealed under this section, supported by affidavit showing good cause, 18 the court with jurisdiction may order the reopening and disclosure of any 19 records sealed under this section for the limited purpose of assisting the in-20 vestigation of the movant. However, such an order has no other effect on the 21 orders setting aside the conviction or the arrest, citation or charge record.

22 “(12) Unless the court makes written findings by clear and convincing 23 evidence that granting the motion would not be in the best interests of jus-24 tice, the court shall grant the motion and enter an order as provided in 25 subsection (3) of this section if the defendant has been convicted of one of 26 the following crimes and is otherwise eligible for relief under this section:

27 “(a) Abandonment of a child, ORS 163.535.

28 “(b) Attempted assault in the second degree, ORS 163.175.

11 in ORS 163A.005.

18 “(E) That no other person previously under the defendant’s care has died 19 or sustained significant physical injury as a result of or despite the use of 20 spiritual treatment, regardless of whether the spiritual treatment was used

15 listed in subsection (4) of this section.

16 “(e) If the conviction is for rape in the second degree, sodomy in the 20 “(B) That the defendant does not have a prior conviction for a crime 21 listed in subsection (4) of this section;

18 the hand or any part thereof of the defendant.

19 “(3) In making the findings required by subsections (1) and (2) of this
