PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL 2769

1 On page 3 of the printed bill, delete lines 1 through 14 and insert “(a)(D)
2 of this subsection from each of the top-ranked consultants. The pricing pro-3 posal:

4 “(A) Must consist of:

5 “(i) A schedule of hourly rates that the prospective consultant will charge 6 for the work of each individual or each labor classification that will perform 7 the professional services the local contracting agency requires for the pro-
8 curement, in the form of an offer that is irrevocable for not less than 90 days 9 after the date of the proposal; and 10 “(ii) A reasonable estimate of hours that the prospective consultant will 11 require to perform the professional services the local contracting agency re-12 quires for the procurement; and

13 “(B) May include, at the local contracting agency’s request, additional 14 pricing information that is limited to:

15 “(i) A description of each task that the prospective consultant under-16 stands as comprising the professional services;

17 “(ii) A list of each individual or labor classification that will perform 18 each task, together with the hourly rate that applies to the individual or 19 labor classification; and

20 “(iii) A list of expenses, including travel expenses, that the prospective 21 consultant expects to incur in connection with providing the professional

1 services.”.

2 Delete lines 22 through 28 and insert:

3 “(6) The contracting agency and the consultant that the contracting 4 agency selects shall mutually discuss, refine and finalize the scope of, the 5 rates and number of hours applicable to, and the maximum compensation 6 level for the professional services and shall negotiate conditions including, 7 but not limited to, a performance schedule for the project. The contracting 8 agency may not pay a compensation level that exceeds a level that the con-9 tracting agency alone determines is fair and reasonable to the contracting 10 agency. Authority to negotiate a contract under this section does not super-11 sede any provision of ORS 279A.140 or 279C.520.”.
