“SECTION 9. ORS 243.706 is amended to read:

243.706. (1) A public employer may enter into a written agreement with the exclusive representative of an appropriate bargaining unit setting forth a grievance procedure culminating in binding arbitration or any other dispute resolution process agreed to by the parties. As a condition of enforceability, any arbitration award that orders the reinstatement of a public employee or otherwise relieves the public employee of responsibility for misconduct shall comply with public policy requirements as clearly defined in statutes or judicial decisions including but not limited to policies respecting sexual harassment or sexual misconduct, unjustified and egregious use of physical or deadly force and serious criminal misconduct, related to work. In addition, with respect to claims that a grievant should be reinstated or otherwise relieved of responsibility for misconduct based upon the public employer’s alleged previous differential treatment of employees for the same or similar conduct, the arbitration award must conform to the following principles:

(a) Some misconduct is so egregious that no employee can reasonably rely on past treatment for similar offenses as a justification or defense to discharge or other discipline.

“(b) Public managers have a right to change disciplinary policies at any time, notwithstanding prior practices, if such managers give reasonable ad-advance notice to affected employees and the change does not otherwise violate a collective bargaining agreement.

“(2) In addition to subsection (1) of this section, a public employer may enter into a written agreement with the exclusive representative of its employees providing that a labor dispute over conditions and terms of a contract may be resolved through binding arbitration.

“(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, when an arbitration proceeding involves alleged misconduct by a sworn public employee of any law enforcement agency and the arbitrator makes a finding that misconduct has occurred consistent with the law enforcement agency’s finding of misconduct, the arbitration award may not order any disciplinary action that differs from the disciplinary action imposed by the agency, if the disciplinary action imposed by the agency is consistent with the provisions of a discipline guide or discipline matrix adopted by the agency as a result of collective bargaining and incorporated into the agency’s disciplinary policies.

“[(3)] (4) In an arbitration proceeding under this section, the arbitrators, or a majority of the arbitrators, may:

“(a) Issue subpoenas on their own motion or at the request of a party to the proceeding to:

“(A) Compel the attendance of a witness properly served by either party;
and

“(B) Require from either party the production of books, papers and documents the arbitrators find are relevant to the proceeding;

“(b) Administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses; and

“(c) Adjourn a hearing from day to day, or for a longer time, and from place to place.
“(4) (5) The arbitrators shall promptly provide a copy of a subpoena issued under this section to each party to the arbitration proceeding.

“(5) (6) The arbitrators issuing a subpoena under this section may rule on objections to the issuance of the subpoena.

“(6) (7) If a person fails to comply with a subpoena issued under this section or if a witness refuses to testify on a matter on which the witness may be lawfully questioned, the party who requested the subpoena or seeks the testimony may apply to the arbitrators for an order authorizing the party to apply to the circuit court of any county to enforce the subpoena or compel the testimony. On the application of the attorney of record for the party or on the application of the arbitrators, or a majority of the arbitrators, the court may require the person or witness to show cause why the person or witness should not be punished for contempt of court to the same extent and purpose as if the proceedings were pending before the court.

“(7) (8) Witnesses appearing pursuant to subpoena, other than parties or officers or employees of the public employer, shall receive fees and mileage as prescribed by law for witnesses in ORS 44.415 (2).

“(9) As used in this section:

“(a) ‘Discipline guide’ means a grid that is designed to provide parameters for the level of discipline to be imposed for an act of misconduct and that is categorized by the severity of the misconduct and takes into account the presumptive level of discipline for the misconduct and any aggravating or mitigating factors.

“(b) ‘Discipline matrix’ means a grid used to determine the level of discipline to be imposed for an act of misconduct that is categorized by the severity of the misconduct, according to the intersection where the category of misconduct and the level of disciplinary action meet.

“(c) ‘Law enforcement agency’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 131.930.

“SECTION 10. ORS 243.650 is amended to read:

However, an appropriate bargaining unit may not include both academically licensed and unlicensed or nonacademically licensed school employees. Academically licensed units may include but are not limited to teachers, nurses, counselors, therapists, psychologists, child development specialists and similar positions. The obligation to meet and negotiate does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession. This subsection may not be construed to prohibit a public employer and a certified or recognized representative of its employees from discussing or executing written agreements regarding matters other than mandatory subjects of bargaining that are not prohibited by law as long as there is mutual agreement of the parties to discuss these matters, which are permissive subjects of bargaining.

“(5) ‘Compulsory arbitration’ means the procedure whereby parties involved in a labor dispute are required by law to submit their differences to a third party for a final and binding decision.

“(6) ‘Confidential employee’ means one who assists and acts in a confidential capacity to a person who formulates, determines and effectuates management policies in the area of collective bargaining.

“(7)(a) ‘Employment relations’ includes, but is not limited to, matters concerning direct or indirect monetary benefits, hours, vacations, sick leave, grievance procedures and other conditions of employment.

“(b) ‘Employment relations’ does not include subjects determined to be permissive, nonmandatory subjects of bargaining by the Employment Relations Board prior to June 6, 1995.

“(c) After June 6, 1995, ‘employment relations’ does not include subjects that the Employment Relations Board determines to have a greater impact on management’s prerogative than on employee wages, hours, or other terms and conditions of employment.

“(d) ‘Employment relations’ does not include subjects that have an insubstantial or de minimis effect on public employee wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment.

“(e) For school district bargaining, ‘employment relations’ excludes class size, the school or educational calendar, standards of performance or criteria for evaluation of teachers, the school curriculum, reasonable dress, grooming and at-work personal conduct requirements respecting smoking, gum chewing and similar matters of personal conduct, the standards and procedures for student discipline, the time between student classes, the selection, agendas and decisions of 21st Century Schools Councils established under ORS 329.704, requirements for expressing milk under ORS 653.077, and any other subject proposed that is permissive under paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this subsection.
“(f) For employee bargaining involving employees covered by ORS 243.736 and employees of the Department of Corrections who have direct contact with inmates, ‘employment relations’ includes safety issues that have an impact on the on-the-job safety of the employees or staffing levels that have a significant impact on the on-the-job safety of the employees.

“(g) For employee bargaining involving sworn employees of a law enforcement agency as defined in ORS 131.930, ‘employment relations’ includes the development of a discipline guide or discipline matrix as those terms are defined in ORS 243.706.

“(h) For all other employee bargaining except school district bargaining and except as provided in paragraph (f) of this subsection, ‘employment relations’ excludes staffing levels and safety issues (except those staffing levels and safety issues that have a direct and substantial effect on the on-the-job safety of public employees), scheduling of services provided to the public, determination of the minimum qualifications necessary for any position, criteria for evaluation or performance appraisal, assignment of duties, workload when the effect on duties is insubstantial, reasonable dress, grooming, and at-work personal conduct requirements respecting smoking, gum chewing, and similar matters of personal conduct at work, and any other subject proposed that is permissive under paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this subsection.

employees whereby employees who are not members of the employee organization are required to make an in-lieu-of-dues payment to an employee or-of a petition by 30 percent or more of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit covered by such union security agreement declaring they desire that the agreement be rescinded, the board shall take a secret ballot of the employees in the unit and certify the results thereof to the recognized or certified bargaining representative and to the public employer. Unless a majority of the votes cast in an election favor the union security agreement, the board shall certify deauthorization of the agreement. A petition for de-authorization of a union security agreement must be filed not more than 90

A ‘managerial employee’ need not act in a supervisory capacity in relation to other employees. Notwithstanding this subsection, ‘managerial employee’ does not include faculty members at a community college, college or university.

“(17) ‘Mediation’ means assistance by an impartial third party in reconciling a labor dispute between the public employer and the exclusive representative regarding employment relations.

the interest of the employer to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward or discipline other employees, or responsibly to direct them, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend such action, if in connection therewith, the exercise of the authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature but requires the use of independent
