

Stop trying to make honest good people into criminals. Focus your attention and passion on existing criminals preying on innocent people.

You are supposed to be “our voice” but you have forgotten that. Those responsible for this bill are more concerned with their constituents hearing “Their voice.”

The voters are watching.
Officer Cory Dhillon