

Restoring the Oregon Caves Chateau

- ◆ In 2006, the National Park Service was giving serious consideration to permanently closing this physically declining National Historic Landmark lodge, the Oregon Caves Chateau.
- ◆ In 2007, the Friends of the Oregon Caves and Chateau was founded to rally support for the Lodge and it's restoration—one of the three GREAT Lodges in Oregon.
- ◆ Strong responses from Oregon foundations, individuals, businesses, the State of Oregon, Travel Oregon and the Oregon Congressional Delegation turned the tide.
- ◆ The National Park Service subsequently committed $17 Million to infrastructure upgrade of the Chateau.
- ◆ And the Friends of the Oregon Caves and Chateau then committed raising the balance of the $21 Million needed to fully restore this unique Oregon treasure.

- ◆ The NPS bids have gone out, a contractor will be chosen in late January, with the goal of re-opening the fully restored lodge in 2021.
- ◆ Help raise and fund the $1.4 million needed to complete the restoration of the Historic Interior and the iconic Monterey furniture collection and create a sustainable operations plan for the future.
