

My name is Anne Campbell. For all of my 58 years I have been an Oregonian. As a proud Oregonian I am appalled that a gun law would even be considered that would make a gun owner a felon for having a firearm stolen. Gun statistics are quite clear. The more gun laws the more crime. I live in the country. I feel quite confident in my ability to protect myself. The nearest police station is nine miles away. There is a homeless encampment across the creek from the back on my 16 acres. I have no small children but when I was a child I was raised with firearms readily available and taught gun safety from a very young age. The government is not my parent. I feel quite capable of making important life changing decisions without government input. I am disgusted that the government believes it knows better than I what should happen in my own personal space.
