

What are people to do?

I for one am single. I keep my forearm locked inside when I am not at the shooting range.

If someone breaks in I may not only have seconds to react.

It is the spirit of the law.

The intent is to have protection and to defend our independence.

The best way to enhance safety is sharing this information with gun owners, not coercion and not micro managing.

Thank you for your indulgence.

David Crittenden