

If passed, will this require us to lock up Rev War guns, Civil War guns? I have many guns that are 200 years old—will they require locks?

I'm against locking up any age of firearms, but am especially wondering if I will have to have locks on antique firearms on display in my private museum in my house.