

- There is no way to verify a firearm was transferred locked up with a cable lock. The above requirement does nothing to improve safety. The lock can be removed in a matter of minutes, or even seconds.
- The provision requiring direct supervision of minors use of firearms will make it difficult to train minors in the skill of hunting. In addition, it also makes it impossible for a minor to begin hunting without direct supervision.

Lloyd Fenwick
Albany, Oregon