

The lockdown law will make it much more difficult for law-abiding gun owners to protect themselves against a home intruder. By the time you retrieve your gun from a safe and remove the trigger lock, it's probably too late. This is a "one size fits all" that will wind up being a boon to criminals. Please vote against!