

This proposed legislation is unconciable and rediculous. I live alone, and have a legal concealed carry permit which means I had to pass training in firearm safety to obtain said permit. What good does a firearm which I have to take out of a locked cabinet and disable a trigger lock do me for self defense? By the time I had accomplished all of the unlocking, I could be raped, beat up, or killed.

Billie L Willis
Malheur County