

Is it worth the animosity you're building with peaceful, law abiding gun owners to pass this worthless bill that does nothing to stem gun violence or crime. We just want to be left alone, but forcing this on us will not go unchecked. If passed we will not abide... or is that your agenda.