

This bill is can not be justified. It does nothing to punish criminals. It uses people who were murdered by a madman and says nothing of the gun owner who stopped the madness. It treats young people like they're unable to make decisions and defense of themselves. It some how makes the Health Authority now a lock Authority? Stop trying to punish gun owners for the evils of the world. We only want to defend ourselves and others.

Tammie McKenzie