

The very simple truth is if the legislators act as tyrants then as tyrants they will be treated. The Oregon Constitution allow the citizens to change the form of government in any manner they choose and that is in the Oregon Bill of Rights. You all may want to keep that in mind. Sacrifices will unfortunately be necessary but they will be made nevertheless. Not a threat, a guarantee and a promise. You all are still subject to the judgement of God whether you acknowledge Him or not and He does get angry.
