

HB4005 is just another liberal step in restricting our gun rights. It's unenforceable and is strictly a reactionary bill with the intention of holding someone accountable should any number of things occur. Please vote no.