

Please, please consider this: Coyote-killing contests do not serve a significant wildlife management function, they are unethical, they reinforce a general contempt for wildlife, they are repellent to most Oregonians.

Please join the states surrounding us to stop this horrendous practice.

Thank you.

Marion Pratt

Bend