

To All Concerned:

I applaud all efforts to ban coyote-killing contests. This is a barbaric practice that should end. I was born in La Grande & come from generations of Oregon hunting families who are appalled by this wholesale slaughter. Competition to kill the most and the biggest of any of Oregon's wildlife species is just not who the majority of Oregonians are anymore.

Thank you.

With respect,
Linda T Campbell
Philomath, OR 97370