I'd like to strongly oppose this bill. First, it's a last minute attempt at shoving through something without proper notice. Second it's not right to fund something so heavily one sided. We have a rental housing shortage now and this will make it much worse. No investors are going to come in and supply more housing when the deck is stacked against them. In fact many investors are bailing out now. Please don't do this.

Thank you
