

No Cap & Trade. It's time to listen to the people. This threatens their livelihood, their homes and their families. We're supposed to be creating jobs, not taking them away. I think we have a enough homeless people in this state. My family has been here since the 30's and this state has done nothing but slowly turn into California. If we wanted to live there, we would! No Cap & Trade!!! Enough is enough!
Bonny Cail

Sent from my iPhone