This is very sad that the legislature has to continue to play shell games with these cap and trade bills..you know it is very controversial and the people want to vote on it.yet you continue to ignore the people and then act suprised when the minority party simply leaves.you continue to hold budget bills ect hostage to deal with these otger large revenue creating taxes.you have based these on a state whose model has been a complete and total failure!!! Please address the budget and other "good" bills and kill these cap and trade scams for good
