

Testimony by Dr. Richard Stroud Why are you punishing Oregon citizens and industry with an ill conceived tax to pay for a non existent problem that is supposed to save the planet from so called man inducted climate change. The climate is always changing based on both recorded history and on the geologic history! Man caused climate change is insignificant in global history and is a false claim by those who would control people throughout the world.

Richard Stroud, Phoenix, Oregon