

Thank you for reading this.

Oregon farmers have a right to manage their farms according to their own lights.

Oregon farmers have a right to protect their livestock.

These things are not in dispute.

In dispute is simply this: killing contests.

They are an exceptionally cruel way to go after any species.

Please support principled wildlife management by supporting HB 4075.

Melinda Fleming