

I oppose SJR201 and any modification to quorum. It is not acceptable to force a party to sit in on a bill when there is a majority party manipulating the system. IF a bill can't be passed through legislation with the current rules then it needs to be turned over to the voters. If you want to change anything stop allowing a majority and again if the bill can't be passed in legislation turn it to the voters.

Kendal Pelton