

I am fully against any changes to the quorum requirements, it was put in place for just this type of issue where a majority party will not pay attention the public outcry and whether is is democrat or republican makes no difference, it is the last straw and sometimes has to be used to make people listen.

Bring cap and trade to a vote and quit all this political BS. 97% of Oregonian are in favor of it being put to a vote.