

I am opposed to changing the section of the constitution in regards to the number necessary for a quorum. This is the last check and balance in place that allows the minority to protect their constituents.

Max Sherman

Hebo, OR

Sent from my iPad