

To whoever it may concern:

I am outraged that you dare to change our state constitution in this way. You have ignored your state's people and throwing a fit because some of the state's legislators actually listened to those they represent.

Do not change the quorum rule. Work with people. Find solutions. Do not make up new rules to fit your wants.

Respectfully,

Laura Orr
Ukiah, OR