BACKGROUND:

The Southern Oregon University Raiders softball team won the 2019 National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) World Series, defeating Oklahoma City University after sweeping the winner's bracket unbeaten. The Raiders finished with a 52-8 overall record, three NAIA softball All-Americans, and a team grade point average of 3.5. Pitcher Gabby Sandoval set school records for wins, shutouts, and strikeouts, and was named NAIA softball pitcher of the year. The Raiders coaching staff were named NAIA softball coaching staff of the year, and head coach Jessica Pistole was honored as the NAIA softball coach of the year.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 201 commends the 2019 national champion Southern Oregon University Raiders softball team for an outstanding season.
