

Senate Concurrent Resolution 203

Sponsored by Senators COURTNEY, MONNES ANDERSON, Representative SCHOUTEN; Senators BEYER, BURDICK, DEMBROW, FREDERICK, GELSER, GOLDEN, JOHNSON, MANNING JR, PROZANSKI, ROBLAN, STEINER HAYWARD, TAYLOR, WAGNER, Representatives ALONSO LEON, MARSH (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Recognizes 2019 Oregon Women of Achievement for outstanding leadership and service to people of Oregon.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1
2 Whereas the Oregon Commission for Women presents the Women of Achievement Award to 3 women in Oregon for leading and succeeding in their areas of expertise, promoting the status of 4 women in society, reflecting a commitment to equity and diversity and serving as exemplary role 5 models; and

6 Whereas when Belinda Carroll came out at age 15, her path took her through houselessness, life 7 on the streets and other challenges en route to becoming one of this state's outstanding leaders; and

8 Whereas in 2018, Belinda Carroll was awarded a Queer Hero award by the Gay and Lesbian 9 Archives of the Pacific Northwest; and

10 Whereas Belinda Carroll brings her wit and wisdom to her nationally acclaimed work as a 11 writer, stand-up comedian, actor, media personality and activist; and

12 Whereas Belinda Carroll's extensive contributions to the local LGBTQ community over many 13 years include her annual performances at Portland Pride, as head organizer of the annual Portland
14 Dyke March, as a guide for Know Your City's Pride Forever walking tour (which highlights sites 15 significant in Portland's LGBTQ history) and as co-founder of the Portland Queer Comedy Festival;
16 and

17 Whereas the two-fold vision of the Portland Queer Comedy Festival-to highlight queer and allied 18 talent from all over the world while giving back to the queer community through nonprofit initi-
19 atives-is illustrative of the high purpose Belinda Carroll brings to her work through shared laughter, 20 awareness raising and common effort; and

21 Whereas Sharon Gary-Smith is a native Oregonian and a second-generation racial and social 22 justice activist, community leader and agitator; and

23 Whereas Sharon Gary-Smith is the eldest of four daughters of Bobbi Lou Mosley Gary and 24 Frederick Douglas Gary Jr., both of whom were activists and strong advocates for equitable educa-25 tion, housing and opportunities for all; and

26 Whereas from her parents, Sharon Gary-Smith learned at an early age to "never forget who you 27 are and whose you are"; and

28 Whereas Sharon Gary-Smith served for six years as the first national director of self-help pro-29 grams for the National Black Women's Health Project in Atlanta, Georgia; and

30 Whereas Sharon Gary-Smith was vice president for government relations and fund development

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 for the Austin Area Urban League in Texas, and she served as a special adviser to then-Governor
2 Ann Richards of Texas; and

3 Whereas in 2016, Sharon Gary-Smith retired as executive director of MRG Foundation, Oregon's 4 leading social justice funder, which she led for nearly six years; and

5 Whereas Sharon Gary-Smith's leadership significantly increased MRG's philanthropic presence
6 and visibility locally, regionally and nationally and positioned MRG as a leader on racial and social 7 justice issues among its peers in philanthropy; and

8 Whereas during Sharon Gary-Smith's tenure, MRG became the first foundation to receive the 9 Portland Human Rights Commission's Outstanding Organization Award and was recognized by the 10 Association of Fundraising Professionals as the Oregon foundation of the year; and

11 Whereas Sharon Gary-Smith is the proud mother of Mariotta Patrice Gary-Smith, a health equity 12 strategist with Health Share of Oregon; and

13 Whereas Justice Adrienne Nelson was appointed to the Oregon Supreme Court on January 2, 14 2018, making her the first African-American to sit on any of this state's appellate courts; and

15 Whereas Justice Nelson's election to a full six-year term in November 2018 made her the first 16 African-American woman elected to statewide office in Oregon; and

17 Whereas in 2006, Justice Nelson was appointed as a trial judge on the Multnomah County Cir-18 cuit Court, making her the second African-American female judge in Oregon; and

19 Whereas prior to her judicial appointments, Justice Nelson worked as a public defender with 20 Multnomah Defenders, Inc., as an associate with the law firm Bennett, Hartman, Morris and Kaplan,
21 LLP and as a senior attorney for Student Legal and Mediation Services of Portland State University; 22 and

23 Whereas Justice Nelson earned her J.D. from the University of Texas School of Law and her 24 B.A. summa cum laude in English and criminal justice from the University of Arkansas; and

25 Whereas Justice Nelson is very active in the legal community and the wider state community, 26 and she is a frequent speaker on topics including diversity, inclusion, equity, leadership and profes-27 sional development; and

28 Whereas Justice Nelson sits on the American Bar Association (ABA) Standing Committee on 29 Public Education, is the Oregon delegate to the ABA House of Delegates, chairs Lewis & Clark Law
30 School's Roosevelt Robinson Scholarship committee and is president of the Owen M. Panner Amer-
31 ican Inn of Court; and

32 Whereas Justice Nelson sits on the Reed College Board of Trustees, the Self-Enhancement, Inc.
33 board of directors, the Oregon Community Foundation Metropolitan Portland Leadership Council
34 and the Girl Scouts Beyond Bars advisory board; and

35 Whereas Justice Nelson is a tireless encourager and mentor who helps people succeed by living 36 their best lives, and she has received numerous national and local awards for her community ser-37 vice; and

38 Whereas Andrea Paluso is co-founder and executive director of Family Forward Oregon and 39 Family Forward Action, organizations founded by Oregon mothers to build economic and political 40 power by organizing to change policies and systems that perpetuate economic insecurity among 41 women and caregivers-and the families who rely upon them; and

42 Whereas Andrea Paluso has helped to lead campaigns for issues including paid family leave and 43 sick leave, affordable child care, pay equity, minimum wage increases, pregnancy accommodations, 44 workplace discrimination and reproductive health care access; and

45 Whereas Andrea Paluso has worked in public policy, nonprofit management, public education,

1 community health and international development at organizations including Outside In (Oregon), For 2 Love of Children (District of Columbia), the Community Health and Advisory Network (New York),
3 the Peace Corps in Niger and Plan International; and

4 Whereas Andrea Paluso has master's degrees in social work and public health from Columbia
5 University; and

6 Whereas in 2015, Andrea Paluso was recognized by President Barack Obama as a White House
7 Champion of Change for Working Families; and

8 Whereas Andrea Paluso lives in Portland and is the mother of two children; now, therefore,

9 Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

10 That we, the members of the Eightieth Legislative Assembly, recognize Belinda Carroll, Sharon 11 Gary-Smith, Justice Adrienne Nelson and Andrea Paluso as Oregon Women of Achievement.

12
