

Corrected

Senate Concurrent Resolution 205

Sponsored by Senators COURTNEY, RILEY, FREDERICK; Representatives HELM, MCLAIN, PILUSO, SCHOUTEN, SMITH DB (Pre-session filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Commemorates 50th anniversary of Portland Trail Blazers.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1
2       Whereas on February 6, 1970, the National Basketball Association (NBA) board of governors 3 granted Harry Glickman the rights to a franchise in Portland, Oregon; and

4       Whereas the new management group held a contest to allow fans to vote for the team name, and 5 "Trail Blazers" was eventually selected by the judging panel; and

6       Whereas the Portland Trail Blazers played their first NBA game on October 16, 1970, defeating 7 another expansion team, the Cleveland Cavaliers, by a score of 115-112; and

8       Whereas the Blazers played their first home game in Portland's Memorial Coliseum, which was 9 to remain their home for the next quarter century before giving way to the Rose Garden, now known 10 as the Moda Center, the current home of the Blazers; and

11       Whereas the Blazers finished their first season with a record of 29-53, but a proud and historic 12 franchise was born and it won the hearts of a city and state; and

13       Whereas the 1970-1971 team featured a rookie star in Geoff Petrie, who scored 24.8 points per 14 game, and the roster also included a young guard named Rick Adelman, who would later become a 15 successful coach for the Blazers; and

16       Whereas the announcer for the Blazers in their first season, and for nearly three decades, was 17 the legendary Bill Schonely, who in 2012 received the Curt Gowdy Media Award from the Naismith
18 Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame; and

19       Whereas during a 1970 game against the Los Angeles Lakers, an excited Schonely exclaimed a 20 phrase that has ever since been synonymous with both the Blazers and the City of Portland: "Rip 21 City!"; and

22       Whereas the early years of the franchise were lean ones in terms of wins and losses, but in 1974
23 the Blazers drafted All-American center Bill Walton from UCLA, creating hope that the team's for-24 tunes were about to change for the better; and

25       Whereas following the 1975-1976 season, the Blazers hired Jack Ramsay, a veteran coach with 26 a fondness for plaid attire, to lead the team, and they also made some key player personnel trans-27 actions, forming the nucleus of a very promising team; and

28       Whereas the 1976-1977 Blazers had the franchise's first winning record, 49-33, and for the first 29 time the Blazers earned a spot in the NBA playoffs; and

30       Whereas the Blazers steamrolled their way through the Western Conference playoffs, succes-

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 sively winning series against the Chicago Bulls, the Denver Nuggets and the Los Angeles Lakers 2 to earn a spot in the NBA Finals against the Philadelphia 76ers; and

3 Whereas the Blazers and the 76ers played a thrilling series that caused many fans to fall under 4 the spell of a condition that came to be known as “Blazermania”; and

5 Whereas on June 5, 1977, the Blazers won game six of the series at home in Portland, winning 6 the series and earning the franchise its only NBA Championship; and

7 Whereas every member of the 1977 championship team will always have a place in the hearts
8 of Blazers fans: starters Bill Walton, Bob Gross, Lionel Hollins, Dave Twardzik and Maurice Lucas, 9 and reserves Larry Steele, Lloyd Neal, Corky Calhoun, Herm Gilliam, Robin Jones, Johnny Davis
10 and Wally Walker; and

11 Whereas the Blazers also advanced to the NBA Finals in 1990 and 1992, losing to the Detroit 12 Pistons and Chicago Bulls, respectively, but earning the admiration of basketball fans around the 13 nation for their skill, teamwork and determination; and

14 Whereas the Blazers have qualified for the NBA playoffs numerous times, including an amazing 15 streak of 21 consecutive appearances from 1983-2003, one of the longest streaks in NBA history; and

16 Whereas Bill Walton won NBA Most Valuable Player honors and four Blazers have won NBA
17 Rookie of the Year honors: Geoff Petrie, Sidney Wicks, Brandon Roy and Damian Lillard; and

18 Whereas six players for the Blazers have been inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame: Bill 19 Walton, Lenny Wilkens, Clyde Drexler, Drazen Petrovic, Arvydas Sabonis and Scottie Pippen; and

20 Whereas three head coaches of the Blazers are also in the Naismith Hall of Fame: Jack Ramsay, 21 Lenny Wilkens and Maurice Cheeks (inducted as a player); and

22 Whereas businessman and philanthropist Paul Allen purchased the team in 1988, and he was the 23 gracious and committed leader of his beloved Blazers for three decades prior to his death on Octo-24 ber 15, 2018; and

25 Whereas the popularity of the team has been reflected in its record-setting attendance, including 26 a streak of 814 consecutive home games sold out from 1977-1995, one of the longest such streaks in 27 all of American professional sports; and

28 Whereas the Trail Blazers Foundation is dedicated to positively impacting the lives of children 29 and families who have been historically underserved, and the foundation has given millions of dol-30 lars in grants to schools, nonprofit organizations and youth; and

31 Whereas over the years, players, coaches and employees of the Blazers have been active vol-32 unteers, donating their time and leadership skills to countless causes and organizations and working 33 tirelessly to improve our community; and

34 Whereas the Portland Trail Blazers have over the past half century become a vital part of our 35 civic framework, helping to make Portlanders and Oregonians proud of the city and state they call 36 home; now, therefore,

37 Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

38 That we, the members of the Eightieth Legislative Assembly, commemorate the 50th anniversary
39 of the Portland Trail Blazers and congratulate the entire organization on its many achievements
40 both on and off the court over the past 50 years, and we extend our best wishes to the Trail Blazers
41 for continued success in the future. Rip City!