“SECTION 2. ORS 653.370 is amended to read:

“653.370. (1) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries may impose upon any person who violates ORS 653.305 to 653.370, or any rule adopted by the Bureau of Labor and Industries under ORS 653.305 to 653.370 or 653.400, a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation.

“(2) Notwithstanding ORS 183.482, any petition for review of an order imposing a civil penalty under this section must be filed within 30 days following the date the order upon which the petition is based is served.

“(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section, civil penalties under this section shall be imposed as provided in ORS 183.745.

“(4) All sums collected as penalties pursuant to this section shall be first applied toward reimbursement of the costs incurred in determining the violations, conducting hearings under this section and assessing and collecting such penalties. The remainder, if any, of the sums collected as penalties pursuant to this section shall be paid over by the commissioner [to the Department of State Lands for the benefit of the Common School Fund of this state. The department shall issue a receipt for the money to the commissioner.] as provided in section 3 of this 2020 Act.

“(5)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner may not impose a civil penalty pursuant to this section upon any person who provides evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that:

“(A) The person has paid a civil penalty to the United States Department of Labor for violation of the child labor provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.); and

“(B) The civil penalty involved the same factual circumstances at issue before the commissioner.

“(b) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner shall refund any civil penalty previously imposed on and collected from any person pursuant to this section if the person provides evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that:

“(A) The person has paid a civil penalty to the United States Department of Labor for violation of the child labor provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.); and

“(B) The civil penalty involved the same factual circumstances underlying the commissioner’s imposition of a civil penalty.

“SECTION 3. (1)(a) After all sums collected as penalties under ORS 653.256 (1) have been applied in accordance with ORS 653.256 (4)(a), the remainder, if any, shall be paid over by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries as follows:

“(A) Seventy-five percent of the remainder of the sums collected shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Bureau of Labor and Industries Account under ORS 651.160 for the purpose of providing technical assistance to employers.

“(B) Twenty-five percent of the remainder of the sums collected shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Wage Security Fund under ORS 652.409.

“(b) After all sums collected as penalties under ORS 653.370 have been applied in accordance with ORS 653.370 (4), the remainder, if any, shall be paid over by the commissioner as follows:

“(A) Seventy-five percent of the remainder of the sums collected shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Bureau of Labor and Industries Account under ORS 651.160 for the purpose of providing technical assistance to employers.

“(B) Twenty-five percent of the remainder of the sums collected shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Wage Security Fund under ORS 652.409.

“(c) The total amounts paid and credited under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection may not exceed $290,000 per year.

“(2) Any amount remaining after the payments have been made under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid to the Department of State Lands for the benefit of the Common School Fund of this state. The department shall issue a receipt to the commissioner for the sums paid under this subsection.”.
