

My name is Marcie Gaynor and I live in Colton, Oregon. I support Senate Bill 1606 because no Oregonian with disabilities should be without needed support in the hospital. My aunt, Karen Staley, was a strong advocate for my cousin Jimmy (James) and after she passed away, I personally saw how important it was for him, when he was hospitalized prior to his end of life, to have my sister as his health care representative providing support to him. To imagine that he, or anyone else with a disability, would need to go through that experience alone is unthinkable.

Thank you,
