

I am a business owner and will comply with CDC and State rules regarding protective measures relating to Covid-19 this should cover me for any liability but fear it will not how do they prove where the virus was encountered ? Do we get to sue customers if they bring the virus into our place of business ? Please keep in mind that it is rarely the judgement that bankrupts but the cost of defending yourself.

Cliff Wageman