

I totally understand giving renters who have been affected by the virus some rent help and we have done all we can afford. We gave anyone whose income was affected half off rent for June and July.

However, we have four renters who are on Social Security Disability whose income has not been affected in any way. They have simply stopped paying because we can not do anything to them.

Please consider adding language that only gives help to individuals whose income has been affected.

Allan Renwick
Manzanita Oregon
509 240 0272