

We oppose Oregon Bill LC-18 for the following reasons:

It assumes that only tenants and not landlords have experienced financial hardships during COVID.

It sets up costly legal battles due to the likelihood that such a bill is unconstitutional and discriminatory.

It exempts other businesses, like utilities, from the same financial consequences. Such businesses have the advantage of strong political influence through lobbyists—unlike residential landlords.

Jean Tonsfeldt
Ward Tonsfeldt
Bend, Oregon