

To our elected leaders, who are charged with advocating for a human dignity And the common good I implore you to extend the eviction moratorium And offer my whole heart and support for LC18. This is not a matter of politics, this is a matter of humanity. Again I beg of you to please extend the eviction moratorium and consider so many families in need during the holidays. Thank you for your time.

--

Jenna Fox

jennafoxphoto@gmail.com