

Oregon Legislature,

I am a private business. I provide housing to several families. If you continue to confiscate my rights and my property I will sell my rentals. This will create additional shortages of housing for renters. This will increase the cost of housing. This is a short sighted plan to pass the economic burden of renters onto rental owners who are also experiencing economic stress as well.

Joe Mansfield