

Hello.

While I am concerned about tenants, I do not understand how it makes any kind of sense for me as a small landlord renting out parts of my home to be expected to forgive any rent. Or for any small private landlord. Maybe a large corporation can afford this or use it for a write off. As a widow and elder on $826 a month Social Security, I am often lower income than my own tenants.

Please explore other more fair options

Sincerely, M Schaefer
