

I am writing to object to LC-18. The concept is flawed because it does not come near to compensate landlords for orders which required them to provide services for free.

We need an amendment to LC-18 placing Sen. Betsy Johnson's LC881 in the special session's final product.

We landlords cannot be the group to unfairly take on the burden of tenants who cannot pay rent. We are providing a service and need compensation in exchange.

Melissa Moore

Portland, Oregon resident