

I own a house and I am unemployed because of the China virus please tell me where is the cash money for homeowners? Don't tell me about forbearance and avoiding foreclosure that is not the same. Why are we less important than people who have chosen to rent ? I Have not wasted my money like so many renters do on frivolous things. By the way I paid my property taxes in full in November 15 . I have housing expenses just like a renter, I am entitled to the same payment whether Kate,Ginny and Peter send it to my mortgage holder or to the renters landlords. . This is the CLASS WARFARE that Ginny and other politicians are pushing, they can't spin it and say they are not giving one group of citizens a free ride and somehow the other is not entitled to it. 38%(Renters) get free money but the other 62%(Homeowners) pay for it. "Some are more equal than others"

They are typical politician. I have worked very hard and made very smart choices over the years to have my house almost paid off. 365 days a year I am doing something to get 100% debt free. Ginny is my supposed representative and refuses to answer the question about why am I not entitled to the same cash payments as her tenants are.
