

To whom it may concern;

I do not think that we should have to forgive any of the rent. The tenants can rack up the debt but still buy new TV's, Christmas stuff, new cars, ect. The comment to me is "I don't have to pay the rent" . I wanted to remodel the unit since we just did the other side. Offered the tenant cash for keys. She said NO I have bad credit and you cant make me move. It is a blatant disregard for the owners. We can not do anything to them.

Thank you,
